

City of Eaton

Zoning & Building Services

Staff Biographies

Dana Booghier Building Official

With forty years of code knowledge and experience Dana is one of the best Building Officials in the State of Ohio. Dana has served on code development boards and organized multiple departments in the state throughout his career. His knowledge, common sense approach and outstanding public relation skills make him a great asset to our department and community.

Jackie Stahl Residential Plans Examiner & Permit Technician

Jackie has served with Eaton since 1993. Jackie is certified with the Ohio Board of Building Standards as Residential Plans Examiner. Jackie assists and reviews zoning applications, reviews residential construction plans, prepares construction and zoning applications for issuance of license, assists residents, maintains all inner department files, and accomplishes the day-to-day office duties.

Jim Alt Master Plans Examiner

Jim is a Licensed Architect and the owner of ALT Architecture in Beavercreek Ohio. Jim Holds architecture license in Ohio and 18 other states. Jim is also a licensed plans examiner and Chief Building Official with the Ohio Board of Building Standards. Jim's expertise is a great asset for our department and community.