About NACHA

The Network Strategy & Outreach area is responsible for coordinating, managing, and executing on key activities and initiatives for NACHA and the ACH Network, working in close collaboration with other functional areas of the organization. Outreach activities include those that are conducted to benefit all ACH Network participants in NACHA's role as ACH Network Administrator, and activities that serve the membership of NACHA as an industry trade association.

NACHA and its member Regional Payments Associations help industry professionals expand their payments knowledge to further their professional development and benefit their employers. Offerings include in-person, desk-top, and distance learning courses, publications, and the Accredited ACH Professional (AAP) Program. Payments education offered by NACHA at the national level augments the rich offering of educational programs provided by the Regional Payments Associations throughout the country.
